every country can grow grain; but big ones are meant to be meat ranches. The present fruitful Contribution of taxes will end by wiping out the profits of our rulers do not recognize the danger and call it a tax to the people. outrageous taxation. Estancieros are losing money at present.

Some unpleasantness has arisen in my owing to the Provincial authority. I have been myself to release me from imprisonment. I have been told by Judge Dr. Costa, the most popular of the Attorneys General, recommends a fatherly remonstrance to the Juiz Government and if this fall the strainer remedy will be to send me to the Line, to bring the magistrates into line with the constitution.

Miss Bluntington (aged thirty-nine) has sent you a dozen of my poetry in the past year, and you have returned every one of them. I called to ask if she is the matter with them. Magazine title (Grandly)—My dear young lady, keep it up.

We have received the programme issued by the "Sport-Club Internacional" for their meeting on Sunday next at Palermo. The entries are numerous and of a truly cosmopolitan character. Tickets and programmes can be obtained at the Sport-Club Gladiador 775 Piedad. By an error in our issue of yesterday, which we regret, the club was alluded to as "the German Club" instead of "the German Club."

An amateur Photographic Society has been formed, the Committee being: Dr. Leonardo Peryass, President; Dr. Arnaldo Kuhl, Vice; Dr. Francisco Ayerza, Secretary; Dr. J. W. Gutierrez, Dr. R. Wernal R. H. Murray, Idacio Calderon, Dr. L. Busch, J. Quedvedo. Amateur photography is all the rage in England, and will doubt take well here also. We wish to see many company the most brilliant success.

The ball-players in the coming winter season will be Eliegnri, Portal, Mardun Manco de Villabona, Pologni, Osoro, Sauperio, Baltasar, Pochi Inguiri, and gares. Items that there was a motion picture of Irún and Recondo junior, but only Eliegui, Mardura, Baltasar and Vergara voted in their favour they were thrown, which will be a great loss to the strength of the contingent, otherwise, perhaps, the elite of cesta players in the world. The first match comes off to-day being as follows: Eliegui, Manco de Villabona and Sampoer versus Portal, Berloqui and Osoro with 10 Ernani balls. For Sunday the following two games are announced: The two Portals v. Balloqui and Osoro; Eliegui and Sampoer v. Berloqui and Manco de Villabona. The game to-day will be a magnificent exhibition, but as Eliegui and the Manco are such splendid form at present they ought to win. For Sunday, Balloqui and Manco already had favorites.

Mr. Freire, German Vice-Consul, has taken charge of the Consulate, in place of Mr. Borda, who has been promoted to Rome.

The Football season opened brilliant in Rosario on Sunday last with a match between Rosario and Roldan, which was won by the latter after a hotly contested game, greatly enjoyed by the numerous spectators.

Mr. Frías, the new Uruguayan Minister was received yesterday by President Cavan and presented his credentials. At 6 o'clock he arrived at the Government House in the State coach, with a princely escort of Light Dragoons. The address

Our Asuncion exchanges to hand yesterday report a "revolution" in San Pedro. The Liberals charged the Gefatura, and the Gefa Politico ran like a man, or rather a dozen men. Nobody hurt.

Hundreds flocked to our office yesterday to see the gypsum woman before she shipped to Barnum. We regret to say that the general observations on the lady's personal appearance were the reverse of complimentary.

The police have locked up the Secretaries of the new fire insurance company, the manager of which is lost to sight but still dear (decidedly dear) to the memory of a good many people. There are, however, hopes of catching the runaway.

It is a great relief to know that the ported loss of the steamer Oroya in the English Channel is not confirmed, and even contradicted. The agent knows nothing about it.
